Storm rips through Haliburton

Damages in Haliburton Village following a freak wind during a storm Monday night could total as much as $300,000, said Dysart Reeve Murray Fearrey. Other property throughout the county also suffered damages.

Early reports stated a tornado was responsible for the damage on the developed strip on Highway 121. Fearrey suggested a high wind, instead of a tornado, developed on Lake Kashagawigamog and funnelled down to the narrows between that lake and Head Lake.

The wind swept along the shore at about 6:25, inflicting damage on houses, the Crabapple Resort, Haliburton Marine and Haliburton Lumber. Property within the village was affected as well.

"Almost all the damage was on private land so insurance will cover it. There will probably be no assistance," said the reeve.

Haliburton Lumber suffered greatest from the blast. A large metal building in the yard housing lumber collapsed.

"The wind appeared to have picked up and shifted the building," said Fearrey, who has an interest in the business.

Teen survives storm's fury

"I was on the phone screaming for help, then the phone was ripped out of my hand," said Karen Miller of Haliburton, recounting her harrowing experience in the high winds Monday night.

Karen was working at the gas bar in front of Haliburton Marine when Monday night's high winds were funnelled down Lake Kashagawigamog.

"I was on the phone because the lights were out and I was scared," she continued.

The Haliburton girl was still looking for reassurance when the wind struck.

"I just took a look outside and there was a snowmobile flying across the yard. The trees were bent over."

At that point Karen began screaming for help over the phone before it was torn from her grasp. She quickly ducked under the counter in the booth, an action which probably saved her life.

"The back wall fell straight down, the roof went straight up and the other side was ripped up," as a boat was launched against the shack.

"All I could think was 'what's going on?'"

Somehow, although boats were tossed across highway 121, and a large building sheltering lumber next door was actually picked up and moved by the wind, Karen escaped with just bruises on her shoulder and face.

"I won't forget that for quite a while," Karen said.

The blast has disrupted business at the store temporarily. Clean up and rebuilding will take a month, he estimated.

"We're most fortunate it was at 6:25, past business hours," concluded the merchant.

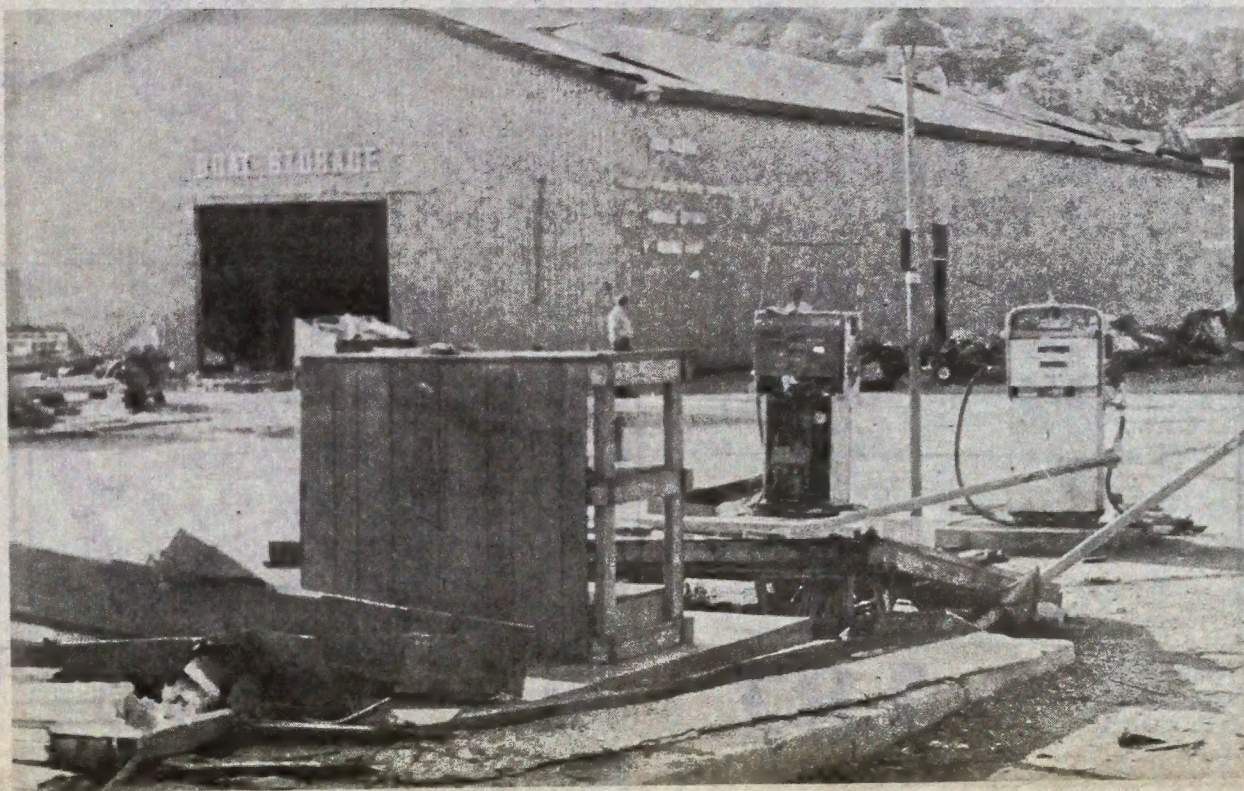

Haliburton Marine, next to Haliburton Lumber suffered fewer damages but an employee was caught in the gale for a few terrifying seconds. Karen Miller escaped with bruises.

Miller was working in a gas bar booth when the wind rose and tore the shack apart as she cowered under a counter.

Aluminum doors to a large building were torn off, and some of the tin roof to the structure was lifted and twisted. Boats and snowmobiles were thrown about the yard and across the highway.

Gary McKnight of the marina said part of the business' sign was found hundreds of yards away by the bridge across the narrows joining Head Lake and Lake Kashagawigamog.

Partner Lyle McKnight said the destruction was completed in a few seconds. He also said he was grateful to the people and businesses which have helped with the cleanup.

The shattered remains of the gas bar attendant's hut is stark evidence of the fury of the storm which ripped through a portion of Haliburton village Monday evening. The counter seen in the centre of the photo, sheltered the 16 year old attendant as the remainder of the building scattered in the wind. Further evidence of the storm's strength can be seen in the twisted sheets of metal on the roof in the background.

Thieves busy on weekend

Investigations into loud parties and stereos being played at high volume occupied the activities of the OPP during this past week as the summer season opened. The authorities report there were few major incidents during the past week although a large number of minor thefts have plagued the county. A partial list of the stolen items is offered by the police. They include:

- On June 30 a lawn mower was taken from in front of a Lutterworth home.

- on the same day, a marine gas tank, fuel line and battery were removed from a boat at Moore Falls.

- a bear cub, made of cement, was taken from a lawn in Minden July 1.

- tools and a tool box were reported missing from a vehicle parked at a lake landing near Dorset.

- a used car in Gooderham is minus its radiator.

- a $450 stereo system was snatched from the beach at Boshkung Lake Friday. While the owners were in the water, a car drove up to the beach, someone jumped out, grabbed the equipment and fled the scene.

- on July 2 a diamond ring, valued at $500 was taken from a home on Maple Lake.

- a $250 camera was stolen from a campsite in Minden Township.

- two break-ins in Lutterworth Township netted thieves $305 in cash. One break-in occurred at a motel while the second was at a lumber yard.

- a resort in Stanhope township lost a coffee pot, six mugs and six glasses to thieves.

- from a property near Irondale four horseshoes, two rifles, a shotgun, sleeping bags, a propane tank and an entire metal garden shed were removed.

- July 3 a $1300 camera, 12 bottles of beer and two bottles of wine were taken from a car parked at a campgrounds in Minden Township.

- $200 in cash was removed from a wallet belonging to someone attending a party at a cottage in Stanhope Township.

- Monday an RCA wind-up gramophone and an old oak bed were removed from a cottage on Kushog Lake in Stanhope Township.

- finally, a rifle, binoculars and four part bottles of liquor were taken from a cottage in Glamorgan Township.

The Minden OPP note, "The number and variety of thefts in the area over just one holiday weekend should serve to remind everyone to take extra precautions with their belongings. Don't suppose that just because no one has ever stolen from you that you are immune to the crime."

The police suggest a number of steps which can be taken to reduce the risk of theft, such as not leaving portable summer equipment, like barbecues or small horse power motors, out unattended. "Keep these and other valuables out of sight of would-be thieves," the police advise.

Birthday party a success

Despite a downpour that soaked everyone half way through the afternoon, Minden's first Canada Day celebration has been deemed a success by the organizers.

Pat Balcombe, who along with Robin Bailey headed the committee which put together the full day of activities, was extremely pleased with the turnout and participation. "It was a great day," she commented. "There was room for more people, of course, but those who did attend had a great time. I was really pleased."

The rains came pelting out of the sky about an hour after the Canadian and Ontario flags were broken from the poles next to the stage at the fair grounds. Several of the events were in progress, when the participants headed for the shelter of their vehicles. The shower lasted about 15 minutes and the activities continued on the field.

The afternoon program consisted of games, races, contests and entertainment for children and adults. Clowns strolled through the crowd handing out treats while a magician mystified youngsters with his sleight of hand.

Those taking part in the contests were awarded ribbons with all participants receiving at least one in recognition of their interest. Two features on the stage drew the attention of the crowd midway through the afternoon. A Highland dancing display, presented by the students of Faith Stephenson, and a self defense demonstration by Gary Stephenson and his students proved to be interesting.

Later in the afternoon, adults were included in the activities, seeing how far they could toss an egg to their partner, without having the delicate oval break. Others took part in the sack races, popcorn eating, hula hoop and other contests to round out the afternoon.

In the evening, local baseball players delighted the audience with an interesting rendition of the summer sport. This was followed by the first fireworks display seen in the sky over Minden in a long time. A large crowd gathered around the hill overlooking the ball diamond to watch as members of the fire department ignited a display that lasted close to an hour. The grand finale was the fireworks which simulated a waterfall. The colourful display drew a loud and appreciative response from those in attendance.

The photographs on this page captures some of the excitement of the festivities.

Program response very encouraging

Response to the proposed Neighbourhood Watch program in the Minden area has been encouraging, according to Constable Gary Chapman of the local detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police. According to the community services officer, 70 replies have been received from interested residents.

Under the program, neighbours in a particular area indicate they are willing to take an active part in protecting their neighbours' property. This participation comes in the form of simply being alert for unusual occurrences. This could involve observing strangers lingering in the area or unfamiliar cars seen in neighbour's driveways.

Those taking part in the program alert police when they see something unusual taking place, noting a licence number or the description of the individual they have observed. The actual investigation and confronting of the individual is done by the police.

The purpose of the program is to assist police in their regular patrol duty. Due to budget restraints, neighbourhood patrols are becoming more difficult for the police to carry out and the manpower which is available must be concentrated in other areas such as accident and crime investigation. By enlisting the support and assistance of residents, it is hoped the protection provided by police patrols can be maintained without placing a strain on the police manpower.

The Minden Rotary Club has volunteered to act as the co-ordinating body in establishing the Neighbourhood Watch program in this community. A meeting will be held in September to explain the details of this program.

A celebration of people

If nothing else, the Canada Day celebration Friday proved once again that a group of volunteers can do wonders when given the incentive to do so. The full day of activities was a complete success, though lacking in co-operation from the weatherman and a bit shy in attendance.

Although it might not have been obvious to the casual observers, the Canada celebration here represented the efforts of many groups and individuals. All area service clubs were involved and many citizens stepped forward to offer their time, talent and expertise to make the day a success.

The community effort was appropos for the purpose of the celebration. Canada, though a broad and impressive country, is nothing more than a sum total of the people who make up this nation. In much the same way, our community, though having many natural attributes, is nothing without the people who give it life and character. The festivities Friday were a recognition of this country's 116th anniversary, but more importantly, a celebration of the people who make this country and our community.

The lion's share of organizing for July 1 was done by Pat Balcombe and Robin Bailey. They deserve a hearty "thank you" for a job well done.

Man's best friend

From the flyer distributed by our local post office last week, it appears we will soon be enjoying the pleasure of home delivery. Why else, we wonder, would box holders, rural route clients and those who get their mail at general delivery, be asked to control their dogs so they don't bite the delivery people.

We've seen an occasional dog in our post office, but these are usually the type which can be neatly tucked under one arm by the owner. They certainly don't resemble the fierce illustration which accompanied the message.

No, dog bites aren't funny, and we sympathize with the Post Office in their efforts to protect their personnel. But Canada Post Corporation should not tempt those who miss the friendly postman on his appointed rounds unless they plan to deliver.

It seems it is us who have been bitten, not only for the cost of the flyers, but also by paying the same price for postage as those in urban areas, and having to pay box rental on top of it. All this and no delivery person to bite.

Conventional wisdom still has it that intelligence, as demonstrated by conscious adaptive behaviour or learning, safely separates we humans from the "lower orders" of the "animal kingdom". We fancy ourselves as evolving ever faster towards perfect rationality while other sorry creatures straggle blindly into one of nature's dead ends.

Well we haven't yet managed to outwit the wily cockroach. And more seriously, ethologists, the scientists who study animal behaviour, are observing enough examples of human-like intelligence that they are beginning to wonder if some of our winged and four-footed friends may literally have minds of their own. In other words is it possible that other animals can reason?

Consider the humble heron. With a brain less than one-tenth the size of ours it uses a feather as a fisherman uses a fly, dropping it on the water with its bill, then snatching the minnow which rises to feed. Traditionally this type of behaviour was explained away as genetic programming, or blind instinct.

Nowadays there are just too many astounding events of this kind to be dismissed so easily. In fact, a recent conference in Washington D.C. drew a host of scientists who do research on the thinking and feeling process of animals. Their stories are of birds that bury food in hundreds of different locations and return a year later to the very same spots; of ants that gesture, demonstrating the kind of service they want their colleagues to carry out; and fish that show community spirit by protecting the nests of unrelated fish which have to

I have been a cottage resident to your area since early in the 1940's.

The Minden merchants have a "logo" on their plastic bags. "MINDEN It's only natural". Why wasn't this logo used on the entrance signs to your community? Also, why wasn't the list of coming events put out by your Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce put on the reverse of these bags? Minden is natural and a most relaxing, friendly place to stop and shop.

It is said the signs were obtained by a government grant and a design by an architect. Is this an excuse or a reason to spend money unwisely? Minden blew it by ignoring the most natural design!

P.S. Congratulations on your sidewalks.

Editor:

Mr. Brandon's letter which appears in this week's paper (June 29) is almost as ridiculous as the new signs.

The zoo keeper also got the attention of the elephant when he hit him with a shovel.

Where, pray, does Mr. Brandon think that the money which the Government gives out in grants come from? YOU AND ME. There are no money trees and no matter which way you slice it, we are still paying for those signs.

Come now, members of the Minden BIA, you can see from the large negative reaction what the people think - why not do something to correct this situation?

On June 28 a delegation from the Haliburton Highlands Anti-Pollution Committee, by invitation from the Minister of the Environment, Hon. Keith C. Norton, attended the official opening of the new acid rain research laboratory in Dorset, followed by a reception at the Nordic Inn.

The Minister gave an excellent and encouraging speech outlining the hazards of acid rain, and stressing Ontario's commitment to reduce sulphur emissions from industry. He also briefly alluded to limestoning of lakes as a possible method of treatment of same.

Representation from the Muskoka's was very evident whilst representation from our County was scant to say the least. The politicians in the Muskokas have evidently become well organized and informed on the subject compared to the County Council of Haliburton who, distressingly enough, appear to have evaded positive organization and involvement on the subject despite the fact that they were made aware of the severity of this problem by our organization, prior to any other County Council.

Pair injured in accident

An accident involving three cars occurred Friday afternoon on Highway 35 just south of Minden.

According to the police, a truck being driven by Frank Dunsford of Lutterworth Township was travelling south when it ran into the rear of another vehicle waiting to make a left hand turn. The driver of the second vehicle was Kenneth Walker, also of Lutterworth Township.

Following the collision, debris from the accident was scattered into the north-bound lane where it struck another vehicle causing $300 damage.

Both Dunsford and Walker were taken to Minden Red Cross Hospital for treatment of minor injuries. Damage to the Dunsford truck was estimated at $5000 while the Walker car sustained $3000 damage.

The collision was investigated by Constable Glenn Irving.

Motorcycle mishap

The driver of a motorcycle was taken to Peterborough Hospital suffering from head injuries following a mishap Saturday. Steven Evans, 22, of Bramalea was driving the Kawasaki model motorcycle when he lost control of the machine and it tipped over.

Police have charged the owner of the motorcycle with allowing the vehicle to be driven when the machine was uninsured.

Constable Boyd Jarvis was the investigating officer.

ATC races draw crowd

All Terrain Cycle fans had plenty of three wheeled action Saturday afternoon as the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association sponsored the first Midget ATC races of the year. Another afternoon of racing is planned for July 30.

There were large crowds at the Minden Arena to enjoy this newest type of vehicle racing, and few went away disappointed. The skillful driving exhibited by the many competitors satisfied onlookers as did some of the spectacular collisions.

Minden residents did well in the racing. Jeff Howe placed first in the 200-225 suspended class and second in the 125-200 modified. Another Minden racer, Steven Stewart placed first in that event. Both competitors picked up trophies donated by Minden businessmen.

concentrate their fight on the reduction of sulphur emissions (directed mainly toward the U.S. whilst not dealing adequately with our own emissions), and whilst our group agrees that emission control is the only permanent solution, we would like to stress the dangers of not implementing a large scale and immediate limestoning treatment programme to run parallel with the emission control lobby.

Acidic water raises levels of dangerous heavy metals such as mercury and aluminum to mention but two. These metals are very toxic to mankind should he ingest same from lake water or especially fish. We now know also, that acidic water has penetrated our water table.

Acidic water also picks up lead (from the solder) and copper from water pipes. Whilst running the water prior to use may reduce this particular hazard it will not remove heavy metal contamination already present from rainfall or leaching from rocks, soil, etc.

It is most distressing to see pictures of newborn fish with their spines grossly bent, one of the deformities attributed to acidic water. It may be only a matter of time before people begin to suffer from worsening ill-effects from exposure to acidic water intake which is saturated with heavy metal contamination. Already, early senility has been linked to an increased aluminum intake (from all sources).

Dr. Armand Lione, Ph. D., of Toronto, told a recent medical symposium that "aluminum concentrations of tap water in North America are increasing, an effect," he said, "of the increasingly acid pH of rain. The more acidic the rain water, the more aluminum it leaches from the soil. Analysis of human brain tissue indicated that very small amounts of aluminum - a whole brain concentration of only 2 or 3 milligrams - may be sufficient to cause severe neurological and behavioral degeneration," he said.

Coupled with the threat to people, acidic water prevents reproduction in fish. At a pH of 5.5 the fish apparently cease to reproduce. This increase in acidity results in an eventual "dead lake" where nothing survives, not even snails and clams.

We have already delayed a limestoning programme for long enough. Already irreparable damage has been done. Limestoning will eventually raise the lake pH to normal and hold it there living for a period of time. We estimate 5 to 10 years from one treatment. It will temporarily resolve most of the aforementioned problems also. It will hold the lakes and the life therein, and reduce the hazards to human health by reducing metal levels. Whilst Canada and the United States negotiate, agree, and implement emission control of sulphuric acid (from industry) and nitric acid (from cars).

Both emission control and limestoning are necessary, not either - or! However, emission control being expensive (so expensive that Ontario Hydro backed out of putting scrubbers on their stacks), and politically complex (involving the private sector and the U.S.), implementation will take time, too much time for many of our lakes.

Whilst the politicians debate, limestoning could prevent more lakes from dying, and help protect the dependent species including man, from adverse effects.

The local chamber and the Ontario Chamber of Commerce have already supported this double-barrelled approach.

Emission control will reduce the incidence and severity of bronchitis and other respiratory ailments. In the interim limestoning will help us to avoid insidious mental poisoning. Taking the double-barrelled approach, therefore, is vital to our well-being as well as to the protection and life of the environment.

We shall continue to fight for limestoning and emission control. The rainfall in this area is acidic. A friend told me today that it had pitted and corroded her new metal chimney!

In conclusion, we enjoyed our day in Dorset, but felt that not everything that can be done, is being done.

from the chamber

Two weeks ago I assumed I was writing my final column but since our new manager will not be starting until Wednesday of this week I am back one more time.

Frank McCarron will be taking over the Chamber management and with it the authorship of this column. Frank is twenty-four years old, and is moving here from Brantford. He has camped in our region for many years and is quite familiar with the many attributes of the Highlands. I sincerely hope you will all welcome Frank to our community and give him your complete co-operation to assist him in getting started in his new position.

Another new information centre

Earlier this spring Cardiff through the Chamber requested an experienced 1983 travel counsellor for their information centre on Highway 28. The Central Ontario Travel Association, which administers this program, was reluctant to place a girl at this particular setting due to its remote location. We suggested that a possible alternative might be a centre at the Cardiff town site but in the mean time C.O.T.A. advised us that there were no counsellor allocations available this year. Due to a change in staffing at the Chamber office we were subsequently advised last week that a counsellor could be made available for that area.

Within hours the wheels were in motion following the phone call to Joe Paul proprietor of the Cardiff Food Fair. Joe was very enthusiastic about the idea and volunteered the use of a twenty-four foot travel trailer which he has placed on his property at the corner of Highway 121 and the entrance to the Cardiff town site. An information centre sign was placed on the trailer and signs are going up on the highway next week.

Michele Lewis of Highland Grove will be staffing the centre and has already visited many of the resort properties in the area to pick up their brochures. The centre sits right on the Haliburton County boundary where Highway 121 enters from the east. It is hoped that this centre will help to serve the eastern municipalities along with the existing centre on Highway 28 operated by the municipality of Cardiff.

Friday night at Deer Lodge

Every five days two to three bus loads of senior citizens arrive at Deer Lodge for a five day holiday package. Along with special games and activities and a tour of the lake on the Highland Queen gala variety night is included in their package. Deer Lodge brings in a group of professional entertainers from Toronto for each of these variety nights. They put on an old English music hall-type show that has them in stitches from the raucous comedy, singing along to the great old tunes, and shedding the odd tear for the memories it brings back.

Last week President Rhonda Elstone and her husband, and my wife and I were invited along for a special evening because Ray Sonin of C.F.R.B. was going to be a guest host for this particular variety night show. These senior packages are regularly advertised on Ray Sonin's Show and in connection with this they have been successful in having Mr. Sonin visit the lodge for a few days and take part. The show was marvelous, Mr. Sonin was very gracious and appeared to be enjoying the show as much as the rest of us. To put the icing on the cake we were also treated to some additional unscheduled entertainment. Doris Brown who lives right here in Minden apparently quite often visits the seniors at Deer Lodge and she did two comedy sketches that were absolutely hilarious. We had no idea we had such fine talent right here in our own community.

Congratulations, Beaverbrook!

I was honoured and privileged to take part in the opening ceremonies on Friday at the new Beaverbrook Golf Course Clubhouse. Dave and Sonia Stevens have shown great foresight and initiative by offering this facility to the area. We can be very proud that we have five beautiful gold courses in Haliburton Highlands and the addition of such a fine clubhouse does that much more to make them a major tourist attraction.

We should remember that in some communities a golf course may simply be a recreational facility but in Haliburton Highlands it is most definitely a tourist attraction and we should be all promoting it as such.

Boat tours

Another popular tourist attraction in the Highlands are boat tours. The Highland Queen operates on Lake Kashagawigamog from the Deer Lodge dock and departs every day at 2:00 p.m., weather permitting. Cruises last approximately an hour and run $4.00 for adults, children 12 and under are $2.50. The boat is also available for charter and more information can be obtained by calling 457-2281.

The Britannia runs from the town dock at Dorset and takes a two and a half hour cruise on Lake of Bays. Their tours run on Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays at 2:30 p.m. and rates are $7.50 for adults and $3.00 for children under 12. Their phone number is 635-2443.

To see and do

The Haliburton Guild of Fine Arts Exhibition & Sale is now running at the Senior Elementary School and continues until July 16. There is a wide variety of crafts and art exhibits created by artisans both local and from throughout Ontario.

The Agnes Jamieson Gallery is opening an exhibit this Thursday by Frank Schmidt. Refreshments will be served at the opening at 7:30 p.m. and regular gallery hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Dorset Pioneer Days kick off on July 9 with a dinner and dance with all proceeds going to the Dorset community centre building fund.

This Sunday, July 10, the Stanhope annual Fly-in and Air Show takes place at Stanhope Airport. In addition to aerobatics by Frank Jenkinson, there will also be performances by model airplanes, glider, and the new exciting lazaire. The air show begins at 1:30 p.m. There will also be an antique car display and local crafts and tables along with clowns and balloons for the small fry. The Jeff Barry Band will entertain the crowd at intervals with country and western music. At 5:30 in the morning the barbeques will be warming up for the giant beef barbeque which will begin serving at about 11:30 a.m.

The annual Country Good Times takes place in Wilberforce on July 16 and 17 and this has been a major event in the county over the last several years. Part of the festivities include the ninth annual amateur talent contest with the semi-finals on Saturday and finals on Sunday. Contestants must register ahead of time. Those interested in this part of the Good Times weekend should contact Donna Herbert at 448-2991 or 448-2981. Watch for more events coming up in July in next week's column.

Thank you

A special thank you to the Minden Horticultural Society for their kind efforts at the Chamber Welcome Centre. Our otherwise dilapidated building looks so much brighter as a result of the colourful flowers they placed in our flower boxes. Thanks very much.

Survey starts

The Ministry of Natural Resources is carrying out a geological mapping project in the Minden District. This project is being conducted by Dr. R. M. Easton of the Ontario Geological Survey with assistance from three geology students.

Current geological maps of the area date from 1910 and are not detailed enough for use in mineral exploration and evaluation of geological resources in this area.

Until about the end of September, Dr. Easton and his assistants will be mapping the bedrock and surficial geology throughout the area at a much smaller and more practical scale of 1:15,840 (1 inch to 1/4 mile). The crew will be operating in the area bounded approximately by Norland to Crystal Lake to Irondale to the junction of Highways 121 and 35, and will be examining all exposed rock formations in this area.

As geological formations and structures do not follow property boundaries, the co-operation of private land owners regarding access to their property will be greatly appreciated to enable an accurate evaluation of the geology and mineral potential of the area.

Exhibition, sale opens

The arts and crafts exhibition and sale, presented by the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts, entered its 21st year at the opening June 30. The summer tradition is currently on at the Haliburton Senior Elementary School.

The show provides a chance for members and non-members to display and sell their works. Non-members are charged slightly more to take part in the show.

Members and non-members have been producing work all winter for the sale which will feature efforts from across Ontario and into Montreal.

This year the show opened with a number of selections from the Haliburton Highlands Choral Society. The society's choral singing kicked off the music theme to be enjoyed throughout the sale. Each night, except Sundays, between 7:00 and 7:30, singers or guitarists will be featured for the listening pleasure of patrons.

Other events are scheduled for the show, which runs until July 16. Guild of Fine Arts associate groups have planned several demonstrations. Among the demonstrations will be those by the quilters, the spinners and weavers and painters. The artists and craftspeople displaying their skills will not necessarily be members

A special feature of this year's sale which guild members have enthusiastically endorsed is the children's creative art centre. The centre is designed to occupy children aged five to twelve while their parents browse through the many exhibits. Donated paints and paper, and films all serve to entertain the children. The centre was organised by Jane Selbie.

The highlight of the sale is the art auction closing day. Various artists have either donated or sold works to the gallery for sale to raise funds. Robert Bateman has two prints in the auction.

One honey bee expert, James L. Gould, reported experiments in which he moved a food source progressively further from a hive and was amazed to find that the bees began to anticipate his pattern of movement, arriving at the new location in advance and waiting for him.

These revelations are not conforming to everyone because they challenge some cherished beliefs that have shaped our arrogant approach to the natural world over centuries. We have conveyed the natural world as a hierarchy of inter-species dominance with ourselves at the top, and the entire structure designed to maintain our position. It allows us to "reclaim" marshlands and "recover" mineral deposits and decimate wildlife populations with no doubt as the propriety of our actions. No delusion was ever more tragic and it is not a moment too soon that our scientists are confirming that this delusion alone sets us clearly apart from the rest of the natural world.

I don't know. Somehow I can't ever see respecting a chicken for its intelligence. But then, the modern chicken is one of our own brilliant creations. Hmm.

Market opens

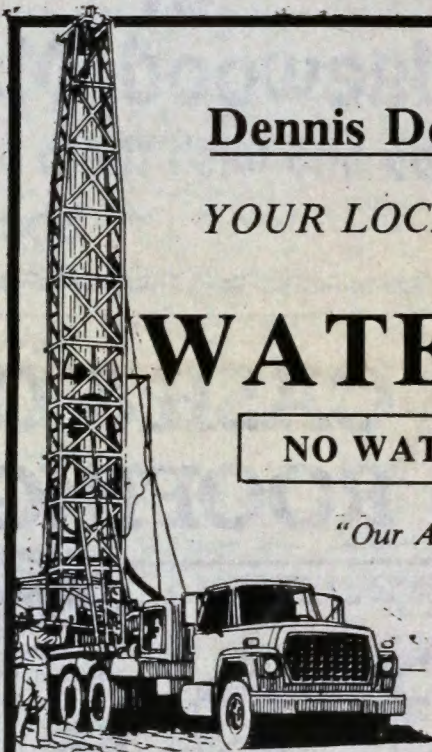

The first edition of the 1983 Haliburton County Farmers' Market and Mini Fair at the Minden municipal office has been termed a success. Organizers were more than pleased with the number of buyers who attended looking for fresh locally grown produce and handicrafts.

The number of merchants on the scene and the quality of the merchandise illustrated the problems with the later growing season in the Highlands. The amount and quality of produce on sale at the market should increase steadily as the summer progresses.

The mini-fair portion of the sale, in which two booths were occupied, was perhaps not as successful. It may take time for individuals to become aware of the goods being offered there. The two renters appeared to be pleased with the response and indicated they would be back in the future.

The farmers' market and mini-fair is held every Saturday morning next to the municipal offices in Minden beginning at 9 a.m. Space in the mini fair pavilion is available during the week as well. Contact the municipal office for more information.

Grant awarded

A New Horizons grant has been awarded to the Haliburton County Home Support Services. This grant was announced this week by Victoria - Haliburton MP Bill Scott.

The $28,663 grant will be used to furnish and equip a drop-in and research centre for seniors of the county. The facility will be used for volunteer training, and other activities related to the centre.

Fund established

Zion United Church in Carnarvon has recently established a memorial fund.

Donations received will be used for furnishings for the sanctuary. Donor cards are available at the Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home in Minden and also from committee members - Joan Fennell, Dean Hodgson and Yvonne Penney.

Harriet Loucks found herself surrounded by strawberries Sunday at the Ingoldsby United Church annual strawberry supper. Church volunteers served several seatings throughout the evening. Visitors also had an opportunity to purchase crafts and baked goods.

Second loss for Hustlers

The Hustlers lost only their second game of the season last Tuesday (June 28) as they dropped a close contest to the Lindsay Juniors by the score of 2-0.

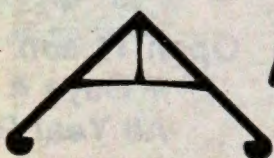

Jack Snell hurled a strong game for the locals, pitching a three hitter, but the Hustlers just couldn't score any runs for him as they left eight men on the bases. As a result of this win for the Lindsay Juniors, they are still in contention for first place with the Hustlers.

On Wednesday night the Hustlers bounced back with a 5-0 win over the Bobcaygeon Merchants. Rick Hartwick tossed a three hitter for the locals for his third win of the year and Bernie Nicholls slammed two home runs for the Hustlers. This raises the Hustler's record to 10 wins and 2 losses on the year.

There is no home game for the Hustlers this week but they will entertain the Lindsay Juniors next Wednesday, July 13. The game could decide first place.

SATURDAY

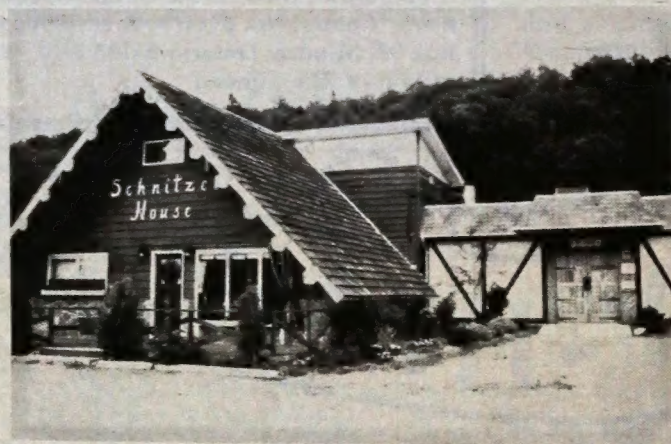

Sunny

A pleasant dining experience awaits the the diner who visits The Schnitzel House Restaurant, on Highway 35, Minden.

Not only will you be pleased with the tasty and extensive menu that awaits your sampling, but you will find the atmosphere convivial and relaxing.

Of course, the specialty of the house is schnitzel, that famous Viennese dish. You can try a variety of dishes featuring this tastily prepared, tender slice of veal. Each has its own special character and taste, and it's worth dropping back again and again to try them all.

The Setting

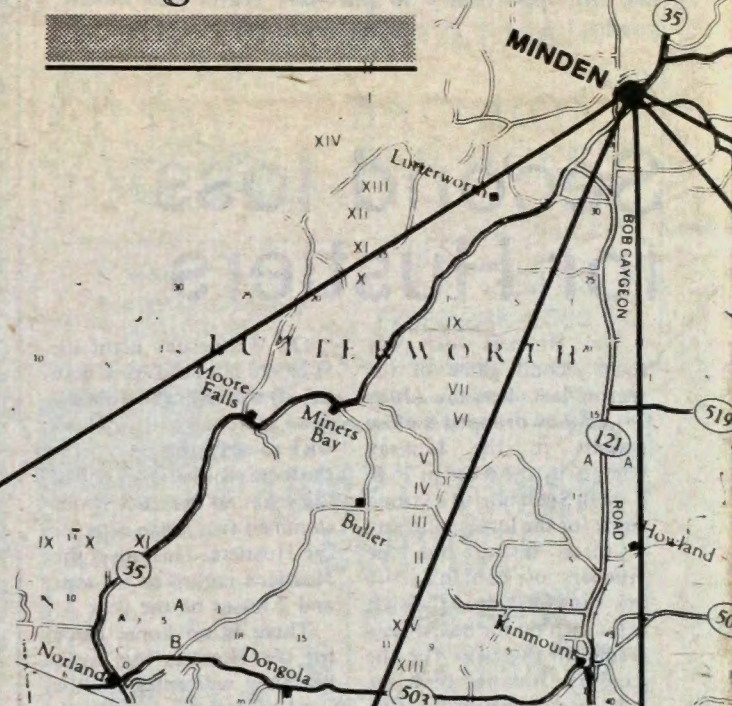

Schnitzel, though the specialty of the house, is not the only item on the menu. There are a variety of other German and Austrian specialties, each prepared and served in a fine European tradition. The menu also includes an excellent variety of traditional North American dishes.

The Schnitzel House has a special luncheon menu, featuring lighter meals perfect for these warm summer days.

You'll be welcomed at the Schnitzel House by your host Irma Homestead and her friendly staff. The main Duke of Minden dining room features interesting European appointments and a casual relaxed atmosphere. Or for a more intimate meal, try the Hunter's Den.

The Schnitzel House is fully air conditioned for your dining comfort. It is open daily, except Tuesdays from 12 noon to 10 p.m. Fully licenced under the LLBO, all major credit cards are accepted. Call 286-2118 for reservations.

senior league

by Bert Harrison

Service in the Chapel Sunday night, the scripture reading was taken from First John, fourth chapter, read by Harold who also led us in prayer, a great help in the service when the Thompsons are there. Rev. Burgess spoke on the fear of Senior Citizens, their fear of growing old. If we put our trust in our Saviour we need have no fear. He will always be with us and stay very near.

Monday morning down at "Fun and Fitness", playing bucket ball, Margaret Gainforth was the best of us all. We had our last Auxiliary meeting for supper Monday night, it was delicious; I enjoyed every bite. We don't meet again until the 26 of September.

Tuesday morning Rev. John Smith of the Lakeside Baptist Church in Haliburton, held a very impressive service in the Chapel this lovely June day. Our faithful Agnes Taylor came to play the music.

Mrs. Annie Cox tells us she has five grandsons who have gone through high-school without writing one exam, isn't that just fine? If anyone can top this pleasure drop us a line. We had a pleasant surprise last Tuesday. My wife's niece and her husband and daughter Joan from Orillia came down our way and had lunch with us. We had a happy day. Tuesday night is music night, Fred Ballard came once more and played some real nice music, as he's often done before.

Well Canada Day is over with celebrations all around with sports and fireworks at the Minden fair grounds.

Our ladies are working in the craft room making and knitting different things, most anything they will try, getting ready for the Bazaar, which takes place the 6 of July.

Doris took a bus load on a picnic near Furnace Falls, I couldn't go as I tore my overalls and I didn't want to take a chance going to a picnic wearing my Sunday pants. Doug Durry called the Bingo numbers Thursday night, they say he is a real nice guy and does the job just right. I also want to say that when we do on these bus trips, they have lots of volunteers help to make sure someone doesn't slip or maybe break a leg or dislocate a hip.

We are glad to have Ralph Daniels back with us again, he came back yesterday. We surely missed him while he was away. Our deepest sympathy from all here goes out to Mrs. John Hewitt in the passing of her son.

This is going to be a long weekend for us children, but we have visitors dropping in who are our welcome guests. Mary Oliver had her brother and others come to call. Her brother said he would come again maybe in the fall. There are many others who had their relations too, but no one told me so what am I to do? Our son from Colburg came to call, took us for a picnic lunch up to Buttermilk Falls.

Wednesday, July 6, 1983

I never cut my neighbour's throat, my neighbour's gold I never stole, I never spoiled his house or land, but God have mercy on my soul. For I am haunted night and day by all the deed I have not done. O unattempted loveliness, O costly valour never won.

"WHERE THE ACTION IS"

Looking back

One of the decisions facing individuals settling in Haliburton County was whether to purchase land from the Canada Land and Emigration Company, or accept free land grants from the government.

Charles MacDermott, who prepared a pamphlet for individuals considering the move to this part of Canada, explained the advantages and disadvantages of both. In his 1868 publication, Facts for Emigrants, he noted as follows:

Haliburton is the centre of the operations of the Canadian Land Company (The Canadian Land and Emigration Company), who own nearly half a million of acres in this district. In the Company's townships the land is selling from one dol. per acre to one dol. and fifty cents according to terms and locality. The townships immediately adjoining the Company's block are either totally unoccupied, or are otherwise only partially settled. In many of townships the Government system of Free Grants is adopted, and an emigrant can choose his lot, take possession of it, cultivate it, and after five years' residence has the title deeds handed over to him. It is a serious question with the emigrant whether he should take a Free grant, or purchase of the Canadian Land Company. The quality of the land may be assumed to be about equal; for a man who takes time can pick an excellent lot in either case. If the emigrant has sufficient funds, it is in my opinion better for him to purchase from the Company, who it must be observed, give either five or ten years to pay the money. The emigrant who purchases from the Company has at once the advantage of living on a good road, — he is near to saw mills and grist mills, — he is enabled to procure his supplies without difficulty, and to sell his produce, when he has any to spare. Moreover, he is close to schools, where his children are taught free of expense, and the local taxation is chiefly borne by the Company. Lastly, but most important, he is among well-to-do people, and when he runs out of funds, he can hire out to some of his neighbours and earn money to keep him until his farm begins to be productive. The man who takes a Free Grant must, if he chooses a good lot, be in the heart of the woods, — he is isolated from other settlements, — he has no road, no market, no school, no agricultural society, no post office, no mill, no church. He is living among settlers as poor as himself, and he cannot consequently hire out for wages, and whatever is done has to be done solely by the settlers themselves, without any extra assistance. Settling on a Free Grant in the townships just opened by the Government, means several years exceedingly heavy labour and much privation and hardship. These are not to be avoided by settling on the Company's lands, but they are greatly reduced, and the life of the woods is altogether made much more endurable. Still, the question is a serious one for the emigrant and must be determined according to the nature of his means. For my own part I prefer paying the one hundred dollars for the one hundred acres and sharing in the advantages offered by the Company.

The Summer Supper and Bazaar at the Minden United Church will be held on Wednesday, July 13 from 5 to 7 p.m. Everyone is welcome to come and join in the fun evening.

I am very sorry to report that Lewis Hewitt, formerly of Minden, son of Cora Hewitt and the late John Hewitt, passed away suddenly last week. Our deepest sympathy to his family and friends.

Winners of the Museum Card Party last week are as follows: euchre, Vera Ward, lone hands (on a cut) May Eldridge and Margaret McAfee.

Free movies for the children will be shown in the Common Room of the Minden Cultural Centre every Friday evening starting at 7:15 p.m. All are welcome.

Joyce Hewitt attended the wedding of her son Neil Ernest to Susan Melissa Burke at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Carlton Place over the weekend. It was a lovely wedding and many guests attended.

The Thrift Shop at St. Paul's will be open the day of the annual Bazaar and Bake Sale, to be held on July 16. The celebration begins at 10 a.m. and a salad luncheon and strawberry shortcake dessert will be served. The bake sale will have all manner of delicacies and the bazaar will feature an infant's booth, children's booth, household goods, bottle sale, Christmas items, miscellaneous items and a fish pond for children. Lemonade will be served. The Festival will also feature the sale of tickets on a raffle of two paintings and a sketch. The bazaar takes place on St. Paul's lawn and everyone is welcome. Better make sure you get there early to take advantage of the best items.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dollo and Ms. Gwen Duncan attended the Hewitt - Burke wedding over the weekend.

Sherry Walker has graduated from Career School of Hair Styling in Oshawa and is now employed at Miss Nora Hair Styling. The best of luck Sherry in your new endeavour.

Pat Raymond is now at home convalescing from surgery at Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay. All best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Percy Drysdale of Minden has had her brother Bill's daughter and a friend from England visiting with her and relatives in the area for two weeks. Mrs. Drysdale has been confined to Minden Red Cross Hospital, but I am happy to report, is well on the mend. The Drysdales spent last week in Bowmanville with her son and daughter-in-law Cecil and Betty Morrison. While there, they accompanied the Morrison's to Mrs. Drysdale's sister, Marjorie Glading's home to attend a garden party at Thorn Hill at which about thirty guests attended.

My thanks to Bert Harrison for his very nice note to me in last week's paper. You are most kind Bert and I do appreciate your words. I also read your column every week and enjoy it very much so I guess it's a mutual admiration society. Thank you again and God Bless.

A very happy birthday and all good wishes to my friend Daisy Bates who celebrated her birthday last week, and also a very happy birthday to my youngest son Doug, of Long Island, who celebrated his birthday the same day, June 30th. Many happy returns to you both.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Hannah and two daughters Jessica and Erica and Mrs. Patricia Silk all from Sault Ste. Marie visited their mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harrison of Maple Lake over the long weekend. Rick left for the Sault on Sunday where he will be holding the fort while his wife and daughters are staying on a two week vacation.

Mr. Doug Walker and sister Mrs. Ruth Green both of Toronto visited their mother and step-father Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harrison of Maple Lake for two days last week.

Mr. Bill Langman and friend Ruth, both of Toronto, were at their cottage at Maple Lake for the long weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Walker of Toronto are so very proud to announce the safe arrival of their first grandchild Christopher Michael, weighing 7 lbs., 8 oz. The happy parents are Laurie and Rhett Butler of Toronto and proud great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harrison of Maple Lake.

Velma Harrison of Maple Lake, I am sorry to say was quite ill last week, however she seems well on the mend for which all her friends will be thankful.

Announcing on Saturday, July 16th, 1983 beginning at 1 p.m., a Harrison and Walker family gathering is being held on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harrison of Maple Lake. Tables and benches, also barbecues are being supplied, so fill your basket and come on down so we can get re-acquainted. B.Y.O.B. please. Velma can be reached at 754-2327.

The latest exhibition offered by the Agnes Jamieson Gallery will have its opening on July 7, consisting of the paintings and drawings of Franz Schmidt. Opening night there will be a reception starting at 7:30 and refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Members of our gallery all extend our deepest sympathy to Trish Hewitt, our summer helper at the Gallery, on the death of her father, Lewis Hewitt.

I have been asked to appear on CKCO-TV's program Tempo, on July 28, and will be interviewed by Betty Thompson. It should be an interesting experience. You can get the program on Channel 11.

To Night

Soft, the shades of evening
Are drawn across the sky,
The world awaits its slumber
As God, Morpheus draws nigh.
The cares that have beset us
And plagued us through the day
Now humbly bow before him.
Retreat and steal away.
The child who laughed and gambled
Has come at last, to rest.
He lays his tousled, sleepy head
Against his mother's breast.
With love, her arms enfold
him.
Her face in sweet repose,
Gently she murmurs to her babe
His weary eyelids close.
A velvet night surrounds us
And stars come out to play.
Look there - a million diamonds strung
Along the milky way!
A silent peace overtakes us
And calms the restless earth
It stills, for now the clamor
That will come at dawn's rebirth.
Now everywhere, the flowers
Have bowed their heads to pray
And honor the enchantment
That returns at close of day.

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off in the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun.

Q: What is lower when the head is on it than when the head is off it?

A: A pillow.

Q: What is it that you cannot see but is always before you?

A: The future.

Q: What speaks all languages but doesn't have a mind of its own?

A: A radio.

Q: On his head he wears a crown, and on his foot a spur, but he is neither king nor horseman, what is he?

A: A rooster.

Q: What do you own that everyone else uses more than you do?

A: Your name.

Q: At night they come without being fetched, by day they are lost without being stolen. What are they?

A: Stars.

Take it easy. Bye for now. God bless till next time.
